

Benchmarks 1st exam bilingual history on “The Stolen Generations”

You will get a newspaper report on another child of “the Stolen Generation” and you will have to answer questions on the text. In order to do the tasks and answer the questions on the text you must be able...

- to explain what life was like for Aboriginal children in the outback of Australia...
 - to explain briefly what the “Stolen Generations” are, the various reasons for this policy of the Australian government, what these children experienced when taken from their families...
 - to explain what life was like for these children in western families, the goals of their new education
 - to explain the problems these children were faced with later in life...
 - to evaluate this policy from the perspective of white people at the time and from our perspective today...
-
- Study vocabulary, revise worksheets on Zeta Wallace, the report on “Stolen Generations”, our interview of Constable Riggs and the film analysis on “The rabbit proof fence”